

Honored Historians

These wonderful people have helped preserve our local history.

Norman Smith

Fire Chief of Center Line, Goodfellow, Historian, Fireman
He has helped many people. He has overseen and cared for the St Clement Cemetery for years. He is a true inspiration to us all.

Mike Grobbel

Historian Researcher and author of the first and best site on Center Line History.
He continues to do excellent research and publish it at his own expense. He is a wonderful person to work with. He has helped many others.

Jack Schram

Who researched history of transportation in our area and collected and shared his pictures. He published books on Transportation. His son Ken has been very helpful.

Pat Hallman

She has done work all over Macomb County. The Bunert School exists today mostly because of her labors. Research on the Bear Creek mansion was done by her. There are several other studies she has done that has benefited those interested in history. We owe her a great dept of gratitude for her great work.

Tom Turmel

Who had done much historical work and beautified our lives and cared for many people and plants. He spent years transforming Warren Union Cemetery into a place of beauty.

Martha Ruth Burczyk

Who did historical research and still has the Friendliest Book on Warren History

Merriann Haberek

Compiled a book about early days of Baseline and Van Dyke entitled "A Moment in Time A Lifetime of Memories"

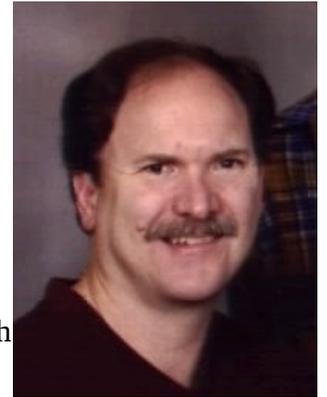

Anna Kluck

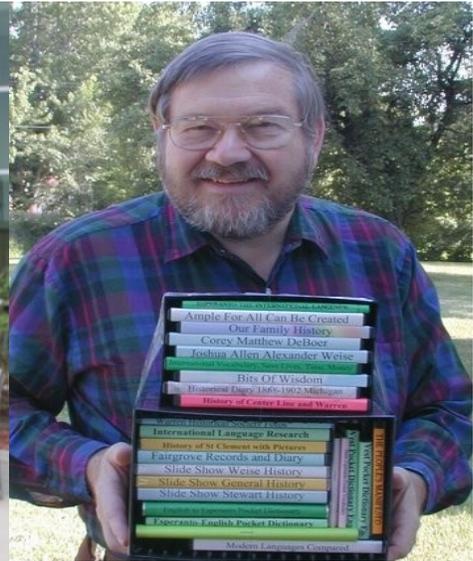

Anna wrote historical articles and interviewed old timers. Unfortunately she did not share her research. I am hoping that perhaps her relatives inherited her research and will share it.

Special Thanks to the following for their good works and sharing of historical information.

Shirley Opfer, Jenny Horn, Bert Hazen, Harold Stilwell, Dorothy Cummings, The Weigand Family, Eugene Mandziuk, William Leroy, Margaret Licht, David Hanselman, Kurt Mccrary, Hubert and Dorothy Leech, Lislle Foss

And to all those who gave their lives and served to preserve our freedom
