

Warren Union Cemetery Fall Color

Photography by Wesley Arnold humble historian

The single volunteer who has labored for many years and who is almost single handedly responsible for transforming this cemetery from weeds to a place of beauty is Tom Turmel.

We owe him a dept of gratitude. Someone should place a plaque in this garden honoring him.

