Thanks to Kathy Kirchner's research a sad story emerges.

Joseph the father dies in Sept 26 1929
Raymond age 12 gets killed riding bike on Van Dyke Sept 14 1930

In the 1930s there is no social security or food stamps. The family is in poverty.

The mother Genevieve dies Sept 3 1949

These above were probably indigent burials of which there are many, in many cemeteries. If you died without money, in the old days you at least got buried locally. Perhaps some kind person donated this stone. We don't know. But with these there is often no stone and later no one knows where that person was buried.
