I want everything on this website and in my books to be truthful and accurate. If you disagree with anything call it to my attention. If you have proof of anything that is not accurate I will correct it. I am old and what is important is that the historic truth be told not who is right or that I am right. I would rather be truthful and correct. It is not important who is right but the truth is recorded. Let me know what you think.

One controversy brought to my attention has been about the stealing of memorials out of this cemetery.

Look! I was an insider in the group that did this (until the day it was done) and I know they were behind the stealing of at least five memorials including soldier memorials. I now know who actually did it and there now is evidence. I am a veteran and we veterans feel this social clique and the two persons who actually did the stealing have disrespected our soldiers, our flag, those who died on attacks on our country and those many pioneers and children buried in Warren Union Cemetery who have no marker, many of whom died terrible deaths. It now appears that they are so ashamed of what they did that they are blaming others. Since I am a historian I have simply recorded their actions into my history. It is up to the police, Village Commission and perhaps the court to determine what is to be done about this grave robbing from our cemetery. I simply now just refer to this group as “The Warren Hysterical grave robbing gang.” Note this is a gang of perhaps 6 people, not the entire Warren Historical Society.

Warren Union Cemetery

On June 21 1845 Peter Gillette sold part of his land to 18 grantees for the purpose of a burying ground.

Grantees were Isaac Barton Oliver Barton, Ames, Davy, Halsey, Hitchcock, Hoxie, Royce, Smith, McGrath, Torry, Scott, Height, Sherry, Dinning, Johnson and others. Very few of these early families marked their plots with engraved stones. Consider that in these old days they had very large families and often lost several babies to early death. Stillborns and day old babies virtually do not get engraved stone markers then or now. Almost every family had some stillborns or day old baby deaths that were not talked about, nor registered. These babies were often buried on top of previous family burials. So let's say that the first twenty families filled up their lots.

That is 10-15 persons per each of those big 10*30 blocks. That means 200-300 unmarked burials of just the first lot buyers. We know that many more lots were sold so much so that more land had to be purchased in 1854, 1863, 1877, 1884, 1885, and 1904. On May 24, 1884 the trustees of St Paul United Church of Christ purchased the east portion of the cemetery from the First Methodist Church. It appears that the name Union Cemetery comes from the union of these two church burial grounds as it was referred to as the Union Cemetery as early as 1854. There are many references to burials at the ME cemetery but many of those graves were not marked by engraved stones. This is true of non village residents, day old babies, paupers and even famous village residents such as the Beebe family. This cemetery was the main burial ground in this area where residents, non residents who died here, day old babies and paupers were buried often without any engraved marker. Remember it was not fenced and overgrown with weeds and shrubs and no one really supervised this wild area. Anyone could go there and do a quick baby burial at the back behind the shrubs and weeds and not be questioned. Chicago road was a rural dirt road and this was outside of the village. During epidemics families dug their own graves and often several babies and young children in a family died. Some were put in common graves and no one wanted to be around the contaminated person. When compared with St Clement which was limited to Catholics who kept good records there were 1.5-2 child burials for each adult burial. Considering that there are about 1000 recorded adult burials here that means that there would also be an additional 1,500-2,000 children buried here but only 150 markers remain of those. Of course most children and babies were not given an engraved marker at all. Researchers have pointed out that as is true with many old cemeteries there are many more burials than stones indicate and there are often more children buried in old cemeteries than adults. Consider that the original 18 plus Gillett and other old families who had lots 10 feet by 30 did not for the most part place stones. And most had big families and they usually filled up their lots and had to buy additional lots here and elsewhere to accommodate the deaths from many diseases we now have cures for. Also consider that many stillborns and newborns were buried on top of regular already used lots and were rarely marked. Even now many families have baby graves without markers. Consider that the older graves were most often not marked by stones and that the cemetery with its 1000-3000 graves was considered full by 1945. Also ways and aisles with no graves have also been deducted from this. but remember the cemetery was unfenced until 1986 and there were many day old baby, stillborns paupers and stranger burials in the back that were not marked. So how many persons are buried there? No one knows for sure but based on what evidence we have we should consider that this cemetery is virtually full. In many old cemeteries such as this there are more unmarked graves than there are stones for graves. We should honor our pioneers and children. A family did just that and donated this beautiful granite memorial to our pioneers and children buried here in unmarked graves. It was donated without cost to the city or the cemetery.

is responsible for hundreds of beautiful plants, shrubs and trees.

Consider that the “back” of the cemetery where many babies & paupers were buried extended further than the now fenced in area and was destroyed by the 1950s Red Run project and by erosion since. The fence was erected in 1986. Families who suffered stillborn or baby deaths did not usually want a big funeral or a stone as there was a stigma about this. The family home served as the funeral home and most families just buried the remains in the cemetery quickly and privately and did not want a marker to remind them of a stillborn or sickly often unnamed baby which would prolong the sorrow of the already guilt ridden grief stricken mother. The sister cemetery St Clement with good records shows 1.5 -2 children buried for each adult with only a small percentage of child deaths registered at the county. That is why County Death records for Warren only indicate 50% of the recorded deaths were children prior to WWI but this is probably only $\frac{1}{4}$ or less of the true number because when one adds in the real number of deaths the number jumps to 1.5 - 2 per adult death.

Also the infant mortality rate back then was very high approximately 200 per 1000 per annum. Many other old cemeteries have hundreds of now unmarked graves many of which are children.

Figure of the 1000 burials in Warren Union Cemetery only 150 show children when county death records of Warren show there are 500 child deaths per 1000 deaths average with that probably being $\frac{1}{4}$ or less of the true number, and the sister cemetery actual rate of 1.5-2 child burials per adult burial.

That means possibly an additional 1,500-1850 unmarked child graves. Then there are many adult graves without markers. Researchers have done the math of all of the above and say that there is high probability that hundreds of children and many adults are buried in Warren Union Cemetery without markers.

And it is true that in many old cemeteries like this there are often then not more unmarked graves than those with surviving stones.

This cemetery has been neglected and vandalized for 170 years. St Paul United Church of Christ pays for the upkeep of the east side.

The Warren Union Cemetery is located between the Red Run River and Chicago Road East of Ryan Road in the North West corner of Warren Township, Warren Michigan. Pioneer farmer Peter Gillette sold a parcel of land in 1845 to eighteen families for a burial ground reserving for his family a large lot. The Warren Union Cemetery Association was organized in 1852 to maintain the 2 1/4 acres. The historical plaque which is wrong states it has 325 graves that date from the 19th Century. Note more recent studies indicate over 500 graves date from 19 Century plus nearly 500 buried or sprinkled after 1900 that have a stone or stone fragment; but if one counts unmarked graves there could be 1,000-3000. However no one alive knows as records were not kept.

In Warren Township the oldest recorded cemetery burials were at the Warren Union Cemetery, followed by the St Clement Cemetery located on Engleman West of Van Dyke. St Clement's first recorded burial was March 27, 1854. Over 800 burials date from the nineteenth century and over 1,500 burials prior to 1943. Some burials were not recorded. St Clement area Catholic families who had lost a child such a stillborn can not find any record of the burial or last rights. However this was and is a Catholic cemetery centered in the middle of Warren. But believe it or not Warren Union Cemetery could actually have more burials as it accepted all faiths and has hundreds of stillborns, hour old babies, day old babies, children, paupers and pioneers who did not have money, means, or didn't see need for an engraved marker, 1-3 thousand possible burials over nearly 170 years. Also Warren Union Cemetery is about ten years older than St Clement Cemetery which stopped accepting burials for awhile. Remains were also brought in to Warren Union Cemetery of persons who had died before cemetery was established. That large number which at first appears to be way off is in the realm of the possible because this cemetery took all faiths, all persons and stillborns, and hours old babies, day old babies, children and paupers and anyone who died in the Warren Township and Sterling area. But St Clement was limited to Catholics and one church and it appears to have almost 3,000 burials and its old section is smaller than Warren Union Cemetery. St Clement has also lost many years of its records so the number they give as the number of burials is smaller than actual burials. I know as I have more older records on St Clement cemetery than St Clement now has.

The records of Warren Union Cemetery are lost due to great negligence, disrespect and dereliction of duty of those responsible and sad to report that negligence and disrespect continues on to this day.

As a researcher and historian who has done more research on Warren area history than anyone else to date it has to be sadly reported that this city has a very small Hysterical grave robbing gang. Police reports have been filed.

There were also local farm burials prior to 1850 but records of these are lost. This includes the two burials at the Bunert Farm in a mound allegedly used by Indians for burials. One house on what was the old River Road (Chicago Road) has a stone grave marker.

A local historian interested in documenting our local history for future generations commenced a several year study of Warren and Warren Union Cemetery by stopping at the Methodist church on Chicago Road and asked to see the cemetery records. That request turned up the response of "what records we have none nor do we have anything to do with the cemetery now." The historian went to the local Warren Historical Society and they stated they did not maintain records and could not find their records they had and referred me to a private individual whom could not find her "very limited records." I tried St Paul UCIC Church who owns most of the cemetery and was told they had no records. I later began attending that church did so for over a year and am in the process of joining it. Discovered they have a cemetery committee which consisted of only a couple people. They refused repeated requests to allow me to see their records. This committee appears to be somewhat secretive and does not hold regular meetings. In fact I tried for over a year to attend a cemetery meeting and had important business for them to take care of but this was totally ignored. It seemed that one person appears to want to keep all of the dealings, decisions etc. only to herself and does not want anyone else involved. It also appears that this committee has ignored needed cemetery business. Example I wanted to tell them a big stone was about to topple and could hurt or kill a child. I have yet to figure out why this person or group is so secretive. They turn a deaf ear to anything they do not want to deal with but in all fairness they do manage to pay one half of the mowing and sometimes kick out money out of their huge cemetery fund to pay for emergency tree cutting. Anyway I was amazed and shocked that this church who has owned most of this cemetery since 1884 has failed to maintain any records.

I went to the Burton Historical Collection and made a copy of the 1938 survey of this cemetery made by the Detroit Genealogical Society which appeared to be done and double checked with a high degree of accuracy by different surveyors a year later. Around that time the local historical society had done the same thing and had someone type up the list which they are selling during cemetery walks with Dorothy Cummings. Since Dorothy has lived near the cemetery for most of her life. I interviewed her to learn what I can to put down in my books for future generations. I found out that she lived away from the Warren area for quite awhile and had not kept records. She was not the responsible person for records. In fact I interviewed many persons and visitors to the cemetery during the many months I was in the cemetery taking measurements and readings. One person told me records were kept on a board but that had rotted out and was trashed. Another told me that a church lady had good records but after she died her kids threw everything out including a big map of where most of the old burials were. Another told me records were destroyed when a church basement flooded. One man told me he suffered two broken legs when a stone fell on him while he was a child. That could happen again to a child there as both St Paul and the Warren Historical Society have ignored my suggestions that we take emergency actions to fix the tilting stones.

Just to state a fact I have done more research than anyone else including (and I list them with great respect and honor to them) Gerald Neil, Mike Grobbel, Jack Schram, Harold Stilwell, Pat Hallman and others such as Fred Gemmill (in telling the history of the City of Warren. I collaborated with him on the book Pathways to Freeways. You can recognize my writing in the first quarter or so of the book.) I also greatly helped Martha Burczyk with her Warren history book. Both of those books are nice but very incomplete so since I retired and since my time left here in this world is very short I decided to type up my research and give it to future generations without cost.

As far as Warren Union Cemetery I have recorded, measured, figured, researched, talked with many visitors and locals. As far as Warren Union Cemetery I have recorded, measured, figured, researched, talked with many visitors and locals for several years.

Another researcher Frank Psadlo who has a Masters in history examined my work and told me he agrees with my conclusions.

That there are many unmarked burials in this cemetery there is no doubt. There are township records, church records, newspaper obits and articles and family records indicating or implying that multiple persons were buried there yet there is now no stone now marking that grave. I am finding these slowly with time as people contact me as a result of my huge history website.

Researchers who have studied this cemetery and other older Michigan cemeteries have found that there are often many more persons buried than there are stones.

Millar Cemetery over on 16 Mile has only 54 head stones yet I have been told there are probably over 100 burials there if not more. At another location Archeologist Scott Akridge was amazed when he visited a local cemetery in 2004. "As many as 200 graves are located here," he said, although only six headstones exist. Most of the 180 cemeteries in the county have numerous graves that are unmarked or marked only with uninscribed field stones. Many military veterans lie in these spaces."

(<http://www.argenweb.net/white/cems>) And there are thousands of Civil War soldiers in unmarked graves. (I have identified a few that may be in Warren Union Cemetery from the 15,000 from Michigan. But many were not documented or the records are lost. 90,000 Michigan men served that was nearly a quarter of the male population. Sometimes brothers and family went with them and were called camp followers and were unrecorded.) And many thousands more babies and children in unmarked graves around our country. Every one of you have hundreds of relatives in unmarked graves. Do you doubt me. OK Where are your great great grandparents uncles aunts and cousins buried? First nearly all descendants are out of that area and do not know where they are buried. Are there markers?

The answer is to 99% of the people who have researched this is no. There are few if any marked gravestones prior to the Civil War and virtually none for babies, children and stillborns. And there were more child deaths than adult deaths. (Just do a Google search on unmarked graves and see for yourself.)

After looking at my research and others research it is discovered that Warren Union Cemetery may have hundreds of more burials than stones now show. Here is the basis for that claim.

Consider that the original 19 families who had lots 10 feet by 30 most did not place stones. That could be hundreds of burials, of which just a few now have stones. This was not considered at all when the uninformed social club that is called the Warren Historical Society chose words for the plaque.

Also consider that in the early days this cemetery was expanded many times as lots were sold and were used and the area was filled up often with children who died of the many childhood diseases we now have cures for. There were a lot of stillborns. Many mothers died in childbirth. Consider again that many additional families bought lots but did not place stones when someone died. And consider that many babies died at birth or shortly thereafter and were buried in the back or on top of other burials.

And in those days most had big families and they usually filled up their lots and had to buy additional lots here and elsewhere (We have proof of that from several sources. Dorothy Cummings for example stated that her family had to buy additional graves in other cemeteries even though her dad was a Warren Township official and her family had sold land to the cemetery. There were simply no free graves available. Records of other cemeteries verify this.

There were many deaths from many diseases we now have cures for which killed many babies, children and adults. Sometimes there were multiple deaths of children in the same family and some died within days of each other. Some may have been placed in the same grave and no marker ever put there.

Remember that there were no funeral homes and that the corpse remained in the family home until burial.

Burial was carried out quickly before WWII. I have diaries from those days that often show a person died and was most often buried the next day. Families did not want a body even of a loved one in the home for long particularly if they had died of an unknown cause. There were fears that what killed the corpse would kill others. Fluids would leak out of the corpse and there were often terrible odors. Within as little as four hours after death decomposition in different body areas may cause tissue gas to form from the bacteria Clostridium perfringens. This is particularly true if a contaminate is present such as vomit, feces, a wound, sores, inflammation, gangrene, etc. The result is a skunk like odor and gasses released. If the house is heated in the winter or if it is summer this is compounded. Decomposition in a part of a corpse can in just a few hours spread to other parts of the body thru fluids and bacteria in the corpse. And ask anyone who has slept with a corpse in the next room spooky to be sure and terrifying to children and some adults. There were no funeral homes and no refrigeration or embalming. So in the old days corpse was buried sometimes the same day or the next day and as soon as a grave could be dug which was by hand using pick and shovel. Church services were held as soon as possible.

Sometimes in the family members and diggers were weak or due to rain, snow, frost, cold or other problems the grave may not have been dug deeply in the old days before undertakers and machinery. In the old days in rural America, which is what Warren Township was, families buried their own with just a shovel and sometimes with just a shroud. And those who think that every burial was in a six foot deep 3 foot by 6 foot hole should try digging one to understand the magnitude of the work involved in doing that by hand with only a shovel. Even those who have dug a grave for a family dog in the back yard can attest to the work involved. It was many hours of very hard work. Now days grave heaters thaw the ground in the winter and mechanical diggers do the work in a short time regardless of the weather. Pumps can even pump out the water in the hole. When I placed a stone in a family plot on another cemetery the sexton warned me to be careful digging even for a shallow foundation for the stone as he stated he discovered that sometimes old graves were not dug very deep. With the wooden casket rotted away human bones were all that is left and as a hand shovel planted them there a hand shovel sometimes unintentionally disturbs them many years later. In the back bones were discovered but no one bothered to investigate. Quite some time ago a skull was found exposed there. The fact is this cemetery has been neglected, ignored, vandalized, eroded, abused and I can testify that very few people care about it.

Stillborn burials were sometimes placed on top of a prior burial or in a shallower grave. Remember this was a very rural area and was mostly farmland. The village itself just had a few little shops but they were way East of here. This was surrounded by farmland and trees so anyone could actually come here and bury a body and probably not be questioned. Of course with time as the area farms were sub-divided that changed. But still people still have their drunken doings and affairs here and as a caretaker for the church I end up picking up their whiskey bottles and condoms. And as crowded as it is now few calls are made to the police. Just a note I found that a few have been scared off by the dark thing here but I am not about to research that and can't verify it. Myself and others have felt the children here at least by day. I have given night tours to researchers can't say we saw anything but we felt sort of a creepy presence. Perhaps it was within us from seeing too many horror movies.

Don't know.

Also consider that many stillborns and newborns graves were were rarely marked. Many were buried on top of regular already used lots. Very few of these were noted on any existing grave stone. Even now many families have baby graves without markers. Consider that the older graves were most often not marked by stones at all and that the older part of the cemetery was considered full by 1945 and many families had to buy lots elsewhere. Consider that there are 1000-3000 grave spaces (depending on grave width and other considerations explained further down) inside the currently fenced area even after subtracting aisles and that there is considerable more cemetery property outside of the current fence at the back. (more room for perhaps 500-1000 burials considering stillborns.)

Consider that the "back" of the cemetery where many babies & paupers and possible secretives were buried extended much further than the now fenced in area and was partly changed by the 1950s Red Run project and by erosion since. The fence was erected in 1986. Before that anyone could bury, in reality, wherever they pleased when no one was around. There were many shrubs and trees in the back and it was probably possible to bury without being noticed.

Families who suffered stillborn or baby deaths did not usually want a big funeral or a stone as there was a stigma about this. The family home served as the funeral home and most families just buried the remains in the cemetery quickly and privately and did not want a marker to remind them of a stillborn or sickly often unnamed baby which would prolong the sorrow of the already guilt ridden grief stricken mother.

The sister cemetery St Clement with good records shows 1.5 – 2 children buried for each adult with only about 6% of child deaths registered at the county. Using that rate suggests the possibility that there could be as many as 1500 babies and children buried there. County Death records for Warren indicate 50% of the recorded deaths were children prior to WWI but that was only from recorded deaths. There were hundreds more particularly still borns and infants that were not registered. Leading to the rate being 1.5-2 children per adult burial. And not even all adult burials were registered before WW1.

Add another possibly few hundred or so adults without markers and you have the cemetery up to capacity. As we have been told by the oldsters many times that the cemetery is full. The above makes mathematical since. But no one alive now knows for sure. Additional collection of family records will give us just a few. Also the infant mortality rate back then was very high approximately 200 per 1000 per annum.

Many other old cemeteries have hundreds of now unmarked graves many of which are children. Figure of the 1000 burials in Warren Union Cemetery only 150 show children when county death records of Warren show there are 500 child deaths per 1000 registered deaths add unregistered and there is the possibility of 1,500-2000 child burials counting stillborns. Strong probably of over 1000. That shows many unmarked plus when one considers that less than 10% were even registered and considering the actual rate per the sister cemetery which is much higher, and also considering the mortality rate there are at the very least hundreds of additional unmarked burials. Again no one alive knows now as records were not kept.

Researchers have done the math of all of the above and say that there is high probability that hundreds of children and many adults are buried in Warren Union Cemetery without markers.

We should at least recognize the possibility of this.

In fact it is much more likely that there are many unmarked graves than now marked graves. This is true of many older cemeteries. Remember this is not a commercial cemetery like Forest lawn or Detroit Memorial where records have been maintained and burial practices standardized.

The people responsible for the records through time most likely varied in their duties integrity and accepting of responsibility. But is clear that several folks along the way were negligent in their duty and responsibility. This is most disgraceful. It is not uncommon for rural cemeteries to be neglected and records lost but there was a village here. This is absolutely inexcusable. And it is even more so for a local historical society that has been around for a very long time to not to have pursued the gathering of records and now for their actual selling or disposing of memorials placed in this cemetery by families in memory of their loved ones. They all seem like nice persons. But their their ignorance of research by my myself and others leading to the stealing of the only Soldiers Memorial naming many buried here, and the Unknown Soldier memorial, and the Memorial to all Soldiers and those Killed on Attacks on our Country, and the stealing of the Flag Memorial and the Children and Pioneers Memorial and most recently of several other memorials now perhaps even including Epitaphs and markers is criminal (grand larceny), disrespectful, destructive of history and inexcusable.

And as a soldier and veteran when one considered what soldiers have had to go through in war and that many of them died and to have someone who has never fought for our country or accompany a casket home with a dead comrade or carry his body out of a battle, I have to stand up and say this was wrong. As a soldier and veteran I will work until I die to respect our soldiers and their honor. But I am old and in poor health and all I can do is write books and speak to people because it seems no one cares. We soldiers die to secure your freedom and low lifes like these rip out our gravestones and destroy our history. We veterans fully earned the right to speak for these Warren boys who served our country. We feel ripping out soldiers memorials is desecration and treason and they should be replaced.

History of Warren Union Cemetery

June 21 1845 Peter Gillette sold a piece of property 9 rods north and south and 12 rods east and west for $12 to establish a burying ground. Sold to: Isaac and Oliver Barton, F Ames, W Davy, A Dennison, Halsey, A Hitchcock, J Hoxie, S Royce, R. Smith, C Smith, W Torey, J Scott, A Haight, E Johnson, W Jenny, O Murry, and others. (I have to get deed to finish this) The original cemetery was 294 square feet or .625 acres. It was divided into lots 10feet by 30 feet. But soon more land was added. More land was purchased in 1854, 1877 and 1885 making the total 1 acre. As this paper is already too long I have deeds, maps and other documents relating to this cemetery in my document book. Some of them show which piece of land was added when and where.

The Warren Union Cemetery is located between the Red Run River and Chicago Road East of Ryan Road in the North West corner of Warren Township, Warren Michigan. Pioneer farmer Peter Gillette sold a parcel of land in 1845 to eighteen families for a burial ground reserving for his family a large lot. The Warren Union Cemetery Association was organized in 1852 to maintain the 2 1/4 acres. In March 2018 The Warren City Council approved the transfer of ownership to them on Dec 19, 2017 but it will take several months to complete legal issues. The last burial at the cemetery was in December 2016,

There may have been additional burials since the last official one in the 2016. Because of the repressive nature of the Warren Historical Society which has declared now necessary for 42” deep foundations to monuments which do cut into old burials more than one families have mentioned to me that they will have their relative sprinkled there or will bury the cremains secretly. I was a caretaker there for St Paul's for several years. Some of our families still have unused lots there. Our congregation has grown very old and the church has transferred the cemetery over to the city.

There arises the question of how many grave spaces are in the land area of this cemetery. That is not easy to answer. Sure in a modern cemetery you can plan out in advance how wide and long the graves will be and what aisles and paths there will be but in 1845 we only have the size of a lot.

There are now 49 rows the total width is 533.36 feet divided by 49 gives an average row of 10.88 or about 11 feet that fits fairly well except at the back where things appear to get out of alignment.

I took measurements thinking OK a grave is perhaps 3 feet wide and ten feet long and the ends with a three foot aisle but those do not fit. Some lots have graves closer together some are farther apart and the aisles do not all go straight. The human body was smaller back in 1845 and most of the burials were children so that throws things off also. The average body considering that many died at a younger age was as an adult 15 inches wide a child from four inches to 12 inches wide. That is no help. The average coffin in modern time is 28 inches wide but back then would be a little smaller. If the average body was adult was 15 inches then the coffin (widest at the shoulders) was less than 18 inches wide and they could be in times of epidemic fitted one pointing East and one pointing west to fit in the already crowded family lot, at two to a yard width. Remember many coffins were for younger persons and were hand made. Some children were buried with only the blankets they died on wrapped around them. Remember at times burials were done very quickly often the same day or next day as they did not want the body in the home. Particularly with stillborns burial was often quick and sometimes private.

At that time there were an average of 15-20 children buried for each 10 adults. Some years more than that. St Clement had 2 children per adult several years and one year 4 per adult. A 10 foot by 30 foot lot can hold from 1-20 adults on just one layer 40 on two layers. Or 10-15 adults and with the room at the bottom an additional 1-120 children. That last number being babies. Not that likely but just pointing out the possible. And with double layer 30 adults and 240 babies. (do the measurements yourself and it is an unlikely but physical possibility.) Of course this in physical theory seems impossible but is quite possible. In practice many babies and children were buried at the ends of or on top of an adult burial. The concept of a standard grave size does not fit these old family plots. In a 10 foot by 30 foot at 24 inches 15 adults side by side or with 28 inches width 12.8 adults, with 30 inch width 12 adults and with 36 inches 10 adults side by side with room for children at the end. With a ten foot space there is four feet which means many babies, or several toddlers or a few preteens also would fit in a 10 by 30 lot. Of course we are talking of burials. If there was a family that wanted cremation (which was relatively uncommon back then) many many more could be buried or sprinkled on/in that lot. So a 10 by 30 foot lot can have 1-30 adults and 1-240 babies. That are the physical possibilities but what about in practice. Without good records or digging up remains that answer is elusive. It appears most likely that there are probably 10-20 burials in a full 10x30 lot considering several being children or babies. Some lots have less some lots may have more than that. We don't have a way to find. Ground radar may not work on these old graves as caskets and bones dissolve.

What about grave width. Now a study of existing lots shows that many graves average about 36 inches but some are less and some are more. Consulting history the standard coffin was only 28 inches wide on outside. Several spacings were computed with results below. Remember families were poor and saved everywhere they could so they could bury in narrow or wider space as they chose. The cemetery property is roughly 533.36 wide by 237.75 feet North but the first 27 rows are only about 166 feet North. The northern strip which is about 60 feet wide and goes full length of cemetery was probably used for stillborns, babies and paupers but is now eroded and wild. At 36 inch width that amounts to 3010 total grave spaces, at 30 inches 3721 grave spaces, at 28 inches 3987 grave spaces and at 24 inches 4651 grave spaces. This is total potential graves on one layer. Now subtract area behind fence if it is determined that it wasn't used, but it was used at least a little because bones have been sighted in the erosion in past. This was a good place for stillborns, day old nameless babies and paupers and by those who wanted to bury someone and did not have the money to pay for a grave. Don't think this could not happen. There were no state agencies, 911 or funeral homes to help. Remember the family home was the funeral home. The body remained in the home until buried. Oh come on would you want to keep a body in your house especially if it might be infected and a threat to your family and children. Remember this was a rural area and did not necessarily have a farmhouse nearby. A deceased could be brought by farm wagon especially stillborns just after dusk and buried in the back behind shrubs without being noticed. This is not without possibility. Although not common it is more on the side of probable.

Row 49 would have 95 graves at 30 inch spacing 79 at 36 inch 101 at 28 inch and 118 at 24 inch grave spacing.

Row 28 would have 95 graves at 30 inch spacing 79 at 36 inch 101 at 28 inch and 118 at 24 inch grave spacing.

Row 27 would have 66 graves at 30 inch spacing 55 at 36 inch 71 at 28 inch and 83 at 24 inch grave spacing.

Row 2 would have 57 graves at 30 inch spacing 47 at 36 inch 54 at 28 inch and 74 at 24 inch grave spacing.

Row 1 is not counted as it has been intruded upon by West property owner. And what is cemetery property and what was cemetery property is unknown without a survey. The deed states the line is straight but now his land encroaches into the cemetery for his drainage. And his drainage may be responsible partly for the severe erosion at the back of the cemetery.

I have chosen in my computations to use 36 inch width figure because I can just list the graves in yards and because I think it fits the thinking of the people and the times. Families could and did bury closer than that and some farther apart depending on financial needs, weather at burial etc. Charting this out on a map worked fairly well to the 36 inch width but is wider than many burials were.

Now how deep. Even now even states differ Florida minimum is 12 inches but this can be waived by next of kin. Many states use the six foot standard some states are less and private cemeteries also vary. Was that enforced? Well in the 1850s the family itself had to dig the grave or hire someone.

If the body had an infectious disease or the family was ill or weak or if the ground was frozen or if it was pouring rain all of that influenced how deep the grave was dug. More than one person including a sexton informed me to be careful in digging around in cemeteries because in a few cases the remains were not far below the surface. Babies and stillborns were often not buried at six feet even today. So to answer the question of how deep are the remains the answer is we don't know and I am not gong to dig to find out. Let them rest in peace. This is why I objected to Warren hysterical society's new rule that all foundations must be 42 inches deep. This could easily put a contractors machine digger into remains. They brushed me off saying suddenly that it would be handled by the committee. What committee? Who appointed them grave police? Who do they think they are to tell a family that they can't put a marker, epitaph or name brick on a family plot that is a hundred years old and have to hire a contractor to dig down 42 inches and aerate the concrete. They are insisting on this but ignore stones seriously tilting that can kill children or hurt people. I will encourage and prod them into taking action to do what is right.

I do not want to be negative but I am stating true observations in my research. If anything in any of my books is untrue I will gladly correct it if shown evidence in favor that a correction is needed. What is important is not that an old researcher is right but rather that the truth gets put into my books. I am old and my time left here is short I have absolutely nothing to gain by publishing an untruth. I have faithfully copied records and photographs and written down what people have told me. My books are my reputation and I want it to be that I was truthful. I have no desire to impress anyone rather just to be a humble historian who records our local history for future generations.

On May 24, 1884 the trustees of the Evangelical St Paul's Church purchased the east portion of the cemetery. The name refers to the union of the Methodist and the St Paul's congregations cemetery. A Warren Union Cemetery Association was organized in 1852. The historical marker states it consists of two and one quarter acres. (But it now may be a bit larger than that because the Red Run edge was vacated.)

Various parcels of land were added to the cemetery. In addition the easement of the Government land which runs 160 feet from the center of the Red Run River means that no one can build anything on the north side of the cemetery property. All that is allowed is plants.

All and any property which had been owned to the North of the cemetery was either sold to become part of the cemetery or abandoned due to the easement which runs up to the cemetery property. Currently this easement is the River, the embankment, mowed weeds about 40 feed wide and the rest up to the cemetery fence is tree and shrub covered and now eroded with much decaying wood and overgrown. If you want to dispose of a body it is the almost perfect place. At a cemetery, out of sight soft ground possible bodies and easy access.

For over 100 years the cemetery was maintained by family members and the two churches. The Methodist church abandoned the upkeep of the cemetery around the 1960s and those folks are Guilty of betraying the trust of the community by not at least protecting the records. What a shame!

St Pauls kept up their side thru the years but the West side grew into a jungle.

The Warren Historical Society began saving the cemetery in the late 1970s. It sponsored the first clean up fix up on Aug 12, 1978. (Actually it wasn't the first which was done over a hundred years ago) Fotos were in a blue album.

Cleanups-fixups were held yearly in May starting in 1979.

The Warren Historical Society because of its work was awarded a Distinguished Service Award from Keep Michigan Beautiful in 1988.

A girl scout troop from the May V Peck school help (leader Suzanne Thebert help with clean-up on May 22, 1980. May V Peck was the last burial in the west end. Was in 1980. Property owners can still bury relatives there as cemetery property does not expire.

Cleanups were held in may in the 1980 .

On June 8, 1982 a "Walk thru the Past" tour and picnic was begun. Dorothy wrote her cemetery story.

In 1986 200 letters were sent to surviving residents and current residents requesting contributions. And $3200 was raised.

Warren Historical Society voted to contribute all of the profits from their annual Homecoming raffle to the Cemetery fund. In 1986 the raffle made a profit of $1264.

With this the Warren Historical Society in 1986 installed a six foot chain fence around the west, north and east sides, a total of 748 feet. Cost of $2,557,00. Also front fence was repaired from car crash. Cost $975.

Stones repaired in west end $382.

Another repair to front fence from another car crash. $208.

Monthly summer mowings at $75 = $450 per mowing plus new power mower and gas weed whip. . $317.

Through action of the Warren Historical Society the city was convinced that street lights would help deter vandalism. In summer of 1986 5 new street lights were installed on North side of Chicago Rd in front of Warren Union Cemetery.

1987 clean up at east end as Denise Bourjaily the mower had so well cared for West end..

Chris singletree again hired to repair some broken stones June 27, 1987. Society paid half St Paul paid other. Total bill $260..

Homecoming raffle of 1987 earned $845. and was donated to cemetery fund.

Dorothy Cummings and Pat Hallman conducted Cemetery Walk Sep 13, 1987. 50 people attended.

Souvenir map printed on parchment paper designed by D Cummings and Jerry Schmeisser from Planning Commission.

Following death of Harold Stilwell Warren Historical Society voted to install a new sign in his honor.

New sign commissioned $200. Installation free donation from Roger VanderVlucht who owns old Murthum house.

In 1987 a young oak tree was donated by Maria Osterloh and planted in the west side of the cemetery by Maria and Dorothy Cummings.

In 1987 a young flowering crab tree was donated by Dorothea Peterjohn and planted in the west side by Maria and Dorothy.

Dorothy Cummings had a sign painted and tagged the old spruce tree as an Indian Marker Tree. At Christmas time Dorothy put a red ribbon and bow on it. 1987 Mowings total $450.

1988 Dorothy Comings working with St Paul to create an endowment fund for the continuing care of the entire Warren Union Cemetery.

Locks installed on all 3 gates for winter 87-88. Since no evidence of vandalism with new street lights we did not repeat this in future years.

Aug 24, 1988 received Distinguished Service Plaque from keep Michigan Beautiful for the beautification efforts in the cemetery.

1989 the St Paul's Cemetery Trust Fund papers were signed. Trustees: Merle Loch, Marilyn Dopp, & Dorothy Cummings.

1990 Nov 11 New flag pole and flag installed complements of "Woodsmen of America. Work done by Andy Plischenko and June Cox.

1991 May 5 Denise Bourjaily began mowing the entire cemetery.

Rat Stilwell had the cemetery sign painted.

1992 Sep 19 Dedication ceremony for Michigan Historic Marker. Representatives from Warren Historic Commission presented the marker. Mayor Bonkowski was present to accept and ministers from both St Paul and Methodist church were present. Approx 100 people attended.

1993 June 5 "Matts Lawn Care" took over mowing of cemetery.

1994 July Matt sold business to "Showcase lawn Service" owner Joe Machiniak.

1993 April 28 A time capsule closing ceremony was held at 2 PM to celebrate the Centennial of the Village of Warren.

1994 April The Grobbel group, 4H Garden Club started the Butterfly Garden in the cemetery. They laid out the "flagstone" cement walk; installed a wooden bench; dug up ground and planted some flowers.

1996 October a Joint work from Warren Historical Society and Warren Garden Club cleaned up and replanted the Butterfly garden. This work has been repeated most years since.

Beginning in 1998 Tom Turmel of Warren has donated and installed as of 1999 28 trees and many shrubs. Before this time most of the cemetery was only grass with only the few big trees and the new Oak and Crab apple tree. As of 2012 one can see that he has transformed the cemetery into a place of beauty. He has done all of this without pay. Fourteen years later a stone plaque was presented to him and was going to be placed in the flower garden at Warren Union Cemetery but will end up in Toms personal garden for fear of the Warren Historical Society stealing that also.

2003 April "Showcase Lawn Service" sold business to "GDM Lawn care" owner June Mead.

2010 a Memorial to all soldiers, veterans and those who died on attacks on our country was donated anonymously by families. It urged our young people to be Vigilant and be prepared.

In 2010 a Memorial to all veterans and those who died on attacks on our country was donated anonymously by families. It urged our young people to be Vigilant and Be Prepared. We think it filled a need because people forget and many youngsters were too young to remember the events or not born yet. And young people need to know that our country can be and has been attacked more than once. Our young folks for the most part are not taught about Pearl Harbor or WWII, or 9-11. Many were too young to remember what happened or not even born yet. We should honor all veterans and those who died in the attacks on our country. Not just people who served in the military. We lost over 400 policemen and firemen on 9-11 with the 3000 who were killed. Shouldn't there be a remembrance of this for future generations. Well one was donated without cost to the city and there was lots of room for it in this old cemetery. And it was there a long time not hurting anything, doing no harm. And it was doing its job of educating visitors. I saw parents being children to that spot while I was doing research. Unfortunately the village veterans memorial did not do this job, did not mention all veterans or those who died in attacks on our country and only honored those interred here. Us veterans and those who knew firemen or relatives who died at Pearl Harbor or on 9-11 feel the newer memorial was nice but a little shortsighted. Those folks who placed the new one needlessly ripped out the old one even though it was in a different place, and that upsets us veterans. What a shameful act.

In 2011 the Village Commission had extra money in its city account and decided it was going to donate a memorial to veterans interred in the cemetery. It was placed in the cemetery with great fanfare, The dedication was June 15, 2011. Old time military band (5th Michigan Regiment Band) playing, mayor speaking and the Warren Police Honor guard. A tent set up for shelter. There was lots of guests and publicity. This brought a lot of attention to this old cemetery. Perhaps partly as a result families donated four memorials to our soldiers and a Children's Memorial. The majority of descendants of the early Warren families live out of town and in other states. The families who donated these memorials were probably from out of town and they made the donations anonymously. My guess was this was done to put the emphasis on the message on the memorials rather than on who donated it. It may be noted that they consulted historian Wesley Arnold's big website for the names of the soldiers buried there and other information because that was the only source available and he probably had given them his web site card when they visited the cemetery. Another factor was that the historian had spent many hours in that cemetery doing research taking measurements etc. During the time he was there he stated that several people visited and he gave them a tour and his website card. He also stated he often suggested that a memorial was needed naming our soldiers and he would like to see an unknown soldier memorial and that there were hundreds of children buried there without markers. He tells of one woman visitor who did not live in Warren who may have recently lost a relative who was very interested in the idea of these memorials. It is not polite to ask women for their name and addresses at first meeting so no notation of hers was made.

Later in the year a flag was donated by Senator Levin that had flown over the White house. The Historical Society and Levin made a big show of this but totally neglected to mention the dangerous conditions in the cemetery and need of repairs. (Stones about to fall over that could harm people especially children.) The huge Metro stone had already gone over and that could have killed a child because it was too heavy for a rescuer to lift off of a child.

On about July 14 five memorials were stolen from the cemetery. That evening the theft was discovered by historian Wesley Arnold and Tom Turmel and the police were called. The police refused to come as we could not give them an address for the cemetery as it has no address. Besides the 911 operator probably thought it was a prank call. Who reports stones stolen from a cemetery? So a police report was made late that night. The next morning Wesley was awakened by the Macomb Daily reporter wanting facts on the theft. It was amazing how the reporter could even know about this. It seems they check police reports in search of news to put in the paper. He requested he meet the historian at the cemetery and show him where the 5 stolen stones had been. During this time News 4 showed up with Bora Kim. It was pointed out that $4,000 worth of new beautiful granite markers had been stolen but we could not come up with any reason as nobody steals memorials from a cemetery. They could be resurfaced and sold was the only explanation that seemed logical. WWJ news radio also called the historian and he could only tell them what I knew. Well soon it was on the Radio. When I got home my phone was ringing and it was WWJ who told me that a woman (Sue Keffer) had called and confessed to having the stones removed. I called the Warren police and Lt Beck confirmed that Sue had called them and told them Warren Historical Society had the stones removed and that they knew where they were. The Warren police not knowing what to do just treated this incident as a dispute among historical society members, so no police action was taken.

I called the Warren police and Lt Brock confirmed that Sue had called them and told them she had the stones removed. The Warren police not knowing what to do just treated this incident as a dispute among historical society members, so no police action was taken. The story did hit the Macomb Daily the next day 15 July.

In 2012 it was discovered that additional memorials had been stolen a new stone with an Epitaph and others. This has got to be stopped. Since the police won't do anything and since the families who donated these are probably from out of town all I can do is publicize this in my books and website. It is my hope that one of these families who donated these memorials will see this and sue the H out of them hopefully putting a stop to this stealing of memorials. As of 2012 now that public opinion is against the stealing of the memorials the officers of the Warren Historical Society are now trying to blame others. Now they are trying to say the Warren Village Commission did it. But those folks did know anything about it (except for one person who was one of those who physically removed the memorials) But even the minutes show that no vote was taken on this issue. But since the secretary of the group was the wife of one of the alleged perpetrators the minutes could be easily doctored. This historian was an insider in the Historical Society until this happened. I saw how they were upset at memorials they could not take credit for. And they were livid at my name having been quoted on two stones. And they wanted to blame me for donating the stones. (Even if I had had the thousands of dollars that cost which I didn't as I have better things to do with my little social security check than put out stones that only 12 people are going to see in a year. I actually can't take credit for these memorials. I did promote the idea of the need for these memorials to visitors of the cemetery.) It was obvious that they were irritated that anyone but them could put memorials in that cemetery and take credit for it which I did not do. They kept this from me which is why the stealing was done in secret because I was on the Historic Commission. (So were they) I have since quit volunteering for this group. I tried fighting this at the Commission meeting but was outnumbered and outvoted. I was the only one who defended these memorials. As a Veteran and former soldier it was my duty.

I will close with one last veteran statement again and move on. We veterans who survived wars speak for the soldiers buried there. We veterans went through hell, were wounded, saw friends die, heard the pain filled screams of mortally wounded men, put friends body parts into body bags, accompanied friends caskets home. We served our country with honor and integrity. We feel it is wrong to steal soldiers memorials and especially ones which show soldiers honored service to future generations for whom they fought and died. They at least earned their name on a granite memorial and this grave robbing gang has no right to steal soldiers memorials they don't own out of our cemetery. Now visitors including young people will not be able to see who these soldiers were. Now many of our soldiers have no marker at all because the only one they had was stolen. We want them replaced.

Persons buried at Warren Union Cemetery

First is a list of persons buried in Warren Union Cemetery from Warren Township records. Note death records only give name of cemetery but not location in cemetery. At the end of this document is an additional list of persons who may be buried here. This is not a wish list but a probable list. As this is from obituaries, death records, family records, township records, etc. In the old days John Beebe for example of a famous person from Warren history lived here most of his life, raised his children here, they got married here, his wife and some of his children are buried here in Warren Union Cemetery.

His son was the village undertaker also. He was the Township supervisor, ran the toll gate, had a business here for many years. His church service was in or near the cemetery. A cemetery search was made and he was not listed being buried anywhere else. Also no records have been discovered indicating that he was buried anywhere else. The logical conclusion is that he is probably and most likely buried here. Is there a record not any longer as it has been lost by negligence. That is why his name will be with many others who are probably here in Warren Union Cemetery.

Here are a few remaining Township records.

Locations

It is a fact of history that over 99% of the graves in the world are unmarked and also that the dead soon become forgotten.

Paupers were also buried in this cemetery in unmarked graves.

Note many stones are difficult to read so families should check the original stone.

This list also includes recordings made in 1938, 1940, 1997 and Prof Wesley Arnold's multi year studies. This is a list of stones and the people buried nearby. Both the stones and the bones below are slowly returning to dust. Stones are listed by Lot Rows starting as S W corner and proceeding East. Lot rows run South to North. Wes donates all of his research without cost to the community in books, DVDs and on the website dogoodforall.today The* symbol means that it was listed on a walk thru prior to 2004. In some cases the stone no longer exists but I have listed the person buried nearby.

Example of numbering: R2-9ur translates to Row 2 nine yards North ur = unreadable

Hs = head stone fs = foot stone cs = corner stone us = unknown kind of stone partly buried

Stones are numbered in order from South to North as of June 2010. Names are listed on the stone. More means there are more difficult to read words. If there is no number in front of name stone is gone. Several stones have been stolen. Sad to report that Warren Michigan has The Hysterical grave robbing Society. See the Macomb Daily July 15, 2011.

Note many epitaphs are so worn that they cannot be read. And the grave robber gang may be responsible for the stealing of epitaphs. These are the only people we know of who are stealing memorials out of this cemetery. Us veterans are upset because we feel they have disrespected our soldiers, our flag, people killed in attacks to our country and the many children and pioneers buried there who do not have markers. Many of those children died terrible deaths. This Warren Hysterical grave robbing Society has a written policy that allows them to steal any stone they do not like without public notice. If you doubt this statement just ask for a copy of their new rules. Check this out for yourself. You will find the above statements to be true.

American Legion Marker* The following found on a note: "The son Ormal Stevens killed in WWI was a constant tragedy to his parents. John slowly died of TB during my days in Warren. He was a fine looking lad and delightful companion. His folks built a little house in the yard of their home for him and tried to do all they could but he would not strictly follow the doctors orders. Bernice Stevens was my school teacher in the lower grades at Utica. She married Neil Kennedy who was for long years station agent for the M RR at Warren, then was transferred to Wayne Michigan. They built a house on the west side of the street running N & W starting just east of the city hall. Had several children. A fine woman, tall & handsome. Nele was short and slight. Other daughters Helen and also a son Nook. The Stevens home for long years was on east side of Chicago road about a block from the sharp bend coming from the RR track crossing ease. Mrs Ormal Stevens Sr was a Rickabus. Ormel Stevens Sr was drawing some furniture from --- RR depot to the village with his horse drawn dray and --- helping him was another local man all of whom with son were very profitably employed. During the work a man made a slighting remark about Stevens son when Stevens climbed back over the load and enraged he engaged in a struggle which ended when they both fell off the wagon. Ormal never ceased to call them a family of slackers."

These stones above are the remaining stones of nearly 170 years of neglect, weathering and vandalism.

Also note that until 1986 this cemetery still had no fence at all. Just in 2011 alone seven stones were stolen out of this cemetery that we know of.

Note on Soldiers and Veterans it is very probable that there are additional soldiers/veterans buried in this cemetery. Many widows did not have funds to buy a marker for their soldier husband. Some veterans died in poverty as some do even today.

Prior to Civil War

KINGSCOTT, JOHN W is buried in Warren Union Cemetery. He was an early Warren township official and was listed in the official 1850 US Census as a US soldier. In those days the life of a US soldier was often one of suffering and sacrifice. That is why he should be listed on a historical stone. Otherwise he will be forgotten.

Much of the following research was done and Transcribed by Robert and Cheryl Allen. They have done a lot of other historical work and we owe them a dept of gratitude. Thank You

Civil War Soldiers/Veterans that were from Warren but we don't know whether their remains are buried here. A search of many other cemeteries did not prove they were buried anywhere else. Since this was the closest cemetery to where they lived, and since in the old days people were usually buried in the closest cemetery it is most probable that they are here. They were poor farmers whose widow may not have had money for a memorial and there were no stone cutters in this rural area.

and assuming one more family joined these 19 families that would give 20 families at 10-20 possible burials each of the large lots that would be 200-400 possible burials (depending on how many stillborns, infants and children were buried) of which there are now only 55 total listed on surviving stones. Remember this cemetery was considered full before WWII. Even this oldest section was considered full and the cemetery had to be expanded.

Back in 1940 The Detroit Society for Genealogical Research did a detailed walk thru of Warren Union Cemetery. They noted that a flag indicating a soldiers grave was located in strip 20 and in the fifth plot.

This is now located to the North of the Davy plot and to the West of the Heartsig plot of strip 21. As a historian I have also been told that there was an unknown soldier at Warren Union Cemetery but no one has told or shown me where. The soldier buried there was not an unknown soldier at the time of burial. He certainly is now because no one alive knows who he was because the records were lost in a flood of the church basement. We veterans think he should still be honored. Whether we know his name or not. We feel it was certainly wrong for the grave robber gang to steal this memorial that was not theirs. The same goes for the other 5-7 stones they did not own and they have stolen out of our cemetery. It was not their property and they do not even own the cemetery.

We veterans know what it is to fight in a war and lose friends. How dare these disrespectful vigilantes steal a memorial that was not their property out of a cemetery. Were they so jealous to take credit for memorials, that they stole ones that others had donated? We veterans have served our country and have lost friends in wars and we feel the grave robber gang has disrespected our soldiers. They are now a laughing stock of history buffs but they have given Warren a black eye.

In addition the following from death records and family records indicate that some of the following persons are or may be buried in Warren Union Cemetery. Also see separate study about Who Is Buried in Warren Union Cemetery.

Additional info on three Warren area boys who were killed in France in WWI and buried there. We veterans think they should at least have their name on a granite memorial which they did. That was one of the ones robbed out by the grave robber gang. We think these Warren boys should be honored.

Blondeel, Kamiel Son of Charles and Elodie Blondeel, of Warren, was born in Belgium, April 21 1898. He entered the service at Camp Custer November 2, 1917. Killed in action in France, October 17, 1918, while serving with Company H, Seventh U.S. Infantry. Buried in Plot G, Row 25, Grave 18, Meuse-Argonne American Cemetery, Romagne, France.

Gietzen, William Ferdinand Son of Nicholas Gietzen of Warren, was born February 23, 1896. Served with the 128th Infantry Regiment, 32nd Infantry Division. Died August 29, 1918. Buried in Plot D, Row 40, Grave 18, Oise-Aisne American Cemetery, Fere-en-Tardenois, France.

Grimms, Edward W born Sept 16, 1890 Died Jan 25, 1919. Died in Service. This stone is in Warren Union Cemetery This soldier may have been forgotten in the rolls but is remembered here. It appears he is buried here as his family put up a marker. But no one knows if there is a body under it.

Jannus, Roger W. Was born December 25, 1886, and enlisted in the service April 1917. He was transferred to the air service, and was killed at Issoudun, France, September 4, 1918.

There were certain families who lived in the area of this local cemetery many of which attended the local churches in the immediate area. The few that were catholic were usually buried at St Clement. But the rest who were Baptist, Methodist, Attended St Paul or were non church goers were most likely to be buried in Warren Union Cemetery. The reason was it was close and the churches were here and it was the custom. When this cemetery started to get filled up, then people sought graves elsewhere. But that was sometime probably near the end of the 1930s. Here below are the family names of very local families who for the most part lived nearby with the high probability of having babies, children (more children died than adults) and adult family members buried in Warren Union Cemetery without markers.

Bold indicates a person with that family name buried in Warren Union Cemetery. Remember many of these early families did not place an engraved marker. Many of these has stillborns infants and children die and did not place a marker on their grave. It is likely that many of these families have at least a child buried in Warren Union Cemetery.

Two people stole our soldiers legacy secretly without just cause, without vote of Village Commission Historical Society or a public hearing, They do not own the markers, or the cemetery. They robbed Warren's unknown soldier memorial from a grave and they stole a memorial that listed Warren soldiers who are buried there. They also stole the only memorial showing the names of these soldiers. Nothing was found wrong with these memorials in a later public meeting And they stole the memorial to all veterans and to those who died on attacks on our country (Pearl Harbor affected many families) and 9-11 (including over 400 policemen and firemen among the 3000 killed) and they stole another that told what our flag stood for and yet another that honors those many children and pioneers buried there without markers.

These memorials were causing no harm. There is lots of room for them. They posed no threat. There is nothing disrespectful or wrong about these memorials.

The memorials were there to honor men who died and to educate visitors especially young people who no longer learn about history in school. We veterans saw friends die. We served our country with honor and integrity. We feel it is wrong to steal memorials showing soldiers honored service to future generations. They at least earned their name on a granite stone. Now visitors including young people will not be able to see who these soldiers were. Now many of our soldiers have no marker at all because the only one they had was stolen.

This was not done by the historical society but by two persons,without a vote of the membership.

Taking property that is not yours is called stealing and when it is worth several thousand dollars it is grand larceny. It has been over a year and they have not returned them. Stealing memorials that name our soldiers is worse than disgraceful. They are robbing our history left for our young people who no longer are taught history in school. No one should be allowed to steal memorials they don't own out of a cemetery they don't own. We veterans feel that they have disrespected our soldiers, our flag and those who died on attacks to our country. These memorials were donated without cost to the city possibility by out of town descendents of those buried there.

We veterans are asking that The Warren Village Commission simply acknowledge that these memorials are not a threat to anyone, harm no one, honor our Warren Soldiers many of which are buried in Warren Union Cemetery which has lots of room for them and does so without cost to the city. We also ask that the people who removed them without public notice or the vote of The Village Commission simply return them without cost to the city. This will also avoid costly and ugly legal battles supported by hundreds of veterans over the improper removal (grand larceny) and disrespecting of our soldiers. This simple and cost free action would make The Warren Village Commission heroes to thousands of Warren children, and veterans who look to them to preserve our Warren Village Historical and American Heritage to future generations.

This also fulfills the missions of The Warren Historical Commission, the society and Village Commission to preserve our history and educate future generations.

But if they choose to disrespect our soldiers and veterans and those who died defending our freedom and on attacks on our country let it be known that we (and there are hundreds of us) will mount a campaign against those few disrespectors. We veterans are not going to allow men and women who died to be disrespected and their history stolen from our local cemetery. Attention attorneys we are looking for attorneys who are willing to help us fight this cause. We are willing to do fund raising to pay you. We are looking for banks or organizations who are willing to accept donations directly to them for this cause. None of us is to accept funds rather they are to go directly to the banks. History will note whether these disrespectors of those who died for our freedom shall be known as the Warren "Hysterical" grave robbing society, or shall be known as Historical Heroes who preserved our American Heritage, educated future generations and respected our soldiers.

Back in 1940 The Detroit Society for Genealogical Research did a detailed walk thru of Warren Union Cemetery. Which was also double checked. They noted that a flag indicating a soldiers grave was located in strip 20 and in the fifth plot. This is now located to the North of the Davy plot and to the West of the Heartsig plot of strip 21. As a historian I have also been told that there was an unknown soldier at Warren Union Cemetery. The soldier buried there was not an unknown soldier at the time of burial. But he certainly is now because no one alive knows who he was because the records were lost in a flood of the church basement. We veterans think he should still be honored as there is no stone on the grave. How some of those memorials got there. I know just a little because I was perhaps the inspirer for two of them. While doing research I spent many hours there. During that time visitors would come and go and some noticed me and came over to a me an old man with a notebook. I usually offered my assistance in locating their dead relatives because at one time I could name the location of most families there as I had studied every grave there for two years. An older woman who visited there talked with me about soldiers buried there and of course I gave her my website card with my Warren History on it and me being a Veteran I also mentioned that there are several boys buried here who have no name on any marker, and a few of now unknowns don't even have a stone. I told her that our Warren Boys (Called boys because many were still in their teens) who were killed in war really deserve to at least have their name on a granite stone here in their home town. I did not mean to cause anguish but she teared up a bit. A month or so later a stone arrived which had my list of Warren soldiers taken from my website..

I think I talked to the person who donated the Children's Memorial in the cemetery. She had asked about children buried there. I had the sad duty of showing her a few stones and telling her that according to my studies and of other researchers there are many children buried in these old cemeteries who have no marker at all and are forgotten. I mentioned the crying report psychic claiming to hear children crying. After all many of them died terrible deaths. I told her that before WWII there were probably more children buried here than adults. That was because there were usually an average of two child burials for each adult burial. Also sometimes several children in a family died the same year.

Many of those children suffered terrible painful deaths from diphtheria, summer complaint, inflammation, scarlet fever, typhoid fever, cholera, etc. The doctors at that time had no good medicines to treat them or relieve the suffering. Many endured days of painful cramps and diarrhea. There was almost nothing the families could do. And many families were too poor to buy an engraved stone besides they believed Jesus was coming soon and no stone was needed. Many concerned people believe that the children and pioneers at least deserve a memorial. I had given the lady my web site address as I do most visitors so they can see my history web pages and get scholarships for their relatives. (That is another thing I do as a college professor I help people get scholarships.) I mentioned that indeed most of the early pioneers and their children had no markers. This woman appeared a little upset upon learning about this sad history. But I stated we just don't know and it is true most of the children and pioneers buried here have no marker. I do not ask women visitors addresses or phone numbers for obvious reasons. The Children's Memorial was probably donated by this woman and she quoted me on it as a source but the stone carver left off the quotes. I can see now that she may have been emotionally moved by the very sad history of these children. Anyway I feel any persons name on this memorial takes away from the message on the memorial. If we recover this memorial I will personally have my name removed as the message is about the children and our pioneers who are unmarked and forgotten. We should replace this marker because we should honor our pioneers and children who now have no markers. And I have no need or desire to have my name on any grave memorial other than my own grave stone which I have at Forest Lawn Cemetery already. The above memorial was causing no harm. There was lots of room for it. What would it hurt to honor these poor Warren children who suffered terribly in their last days?

I have too little money than to spend it on a stones that perhaps a dozen people will see in a year so I stick to books which are seen by hundreds of people. My books are given away for free. I think the grave stone robbers were going to sell the stones as these were expensive but my quick police report stopped them.

What would it have hurt to honor these poor children who suffered terribly in their last days?

There are many soldiers and soldiers families buried at Warren Union Cemetery. Unfortunately many may be buried there and now have no marker. There are several Civil War soldiers who are possibly buried there. Searches of other cemeteries further away does not turn up their name. So it certainly opens up the logical possibility that many of them are buried here. Families were poor and often did not know about later placing a government paid for stone. Researchers have discovered their names. In the many hours I spent in this cemetery (one of seven I have researched) I met many visitors. We sometimes discussed soldiers buried here. I would show them Neil Reid's stone and VanFleet's and so on. I often mentioned that there were probably several others buried here now without any marker at all and that we now knew the names and they are on my big history website. I suggested that I hoped someday that someone would donate a memorial listing these men who died (many as just Warren farm boys) so that their service to our country would not be forgotten.

Well in 2011 some caring folks donated a memorial to these soldiers. They copied the information off of dogoodforall.today . The list was on the stone was not meant to be a list of burials but rather an honoring for future generations of these Warren area men who served for us. For many of these Warren men this was the only marker naming them. It was based on research of several researchers.

The young people today are not taught history and it is fitting to honor the service of these men. Many of us feel that we should honor our soldiers many of which who served, and or died for our freedoms. This historian is a veteran who knows what it is like to serve in a war and to lose friends. We veterans feel that these soldiers should be honored.

This “Hysterical” grave robbing gang even stated that they will remove anything that they don't like including grave stones without warning. See their new dictated rules. I am a member of the Warren Historic Commission and a copy of this was given to us. One rule states all stones must now have a 42 inch deep foundation using 5-6% aerated concrete. This means that a simple four inch flat headstone requires this huge unreasonable foundation which in several cases will mean that creating it may actually desecrate remains because in the old days not all remains were buried below this level. Even today the top of a vault is often only about four feet down. What if a baby is buried on top of this? And there are often shallow graves in old cemeteries. Remember these were dug by hand, often in bad weather sometimes with rain partly filling the grave hole. If the body had an infectious disease or the family was ill or weak or if the ground was frozen or if it was pouring rain all of that influenced how deep the grave was dug. More than one person including a sexton informed me to be careful in digging around in cemeteries because in a few cases the remains were not far below the surface. Remember this is not a modern commercial cemetery where commercial mechanical diggers do the hard work. Rather this is a rural farmers cemetery. The new unnecessary rules do not even allow people to leave a flower on a stone or grave without a receptacle. This is unreasonable to loved ones and creates unnecessary work for me a caretaker. We don't need more plastic glass and metal things blowing around to get cut up by the mower and create sharp fragments that can injure children and hurt feet.

This cemetery has been neglected and vandalized for 170 years.

Update 2019 good news first on safety The City has taken over the cemetery and the tilting stones have been fixed. However at least one child in the past had both legs broken by falling stone. I talked to him in the cemetery while I was doing research and he told me about the painful event.

First hand account about the grave robbings.

I overheard Sue Keffer herself say "They've got to go." I did not realize at that time what they meant or that it was going to be a planned action. They did not mention this in a Historical Society Meeting or at a Village Historic Commission meeting or at the Warren Historic Commission meeting prior to the stones being stolen. They did not hold any public hearing. This was done secretly. Because since I was a very active member of the Warren Historic Commission and the Warren Historical & Genealogical Society and a veteran they knew I would object. In fact they waited until I and other members were at the dedication of the Ulrich Historic plaque on 9 Mile road so that Oz Zamora and Richard Hetchler, the actual grave robbers, could steal these stones on the sly. This information (verification) appears partly in the Macomb Daily news story, and by their own admissions early on, and by an accidental email I received at the time but was too busy to read and in three police reports. Sgt Beck received a call from Sue Keffer stating she had the memorials removed so the police took no action considering it a historical issue. He verified this to me by phone call. And he verified this to the Macomb Daily as well. Now; of course because public opinion and us veterans are against this action they have changed their story to "The Village Commission did it." But there were no public hearings prior to this action to even determine if there was anything wrong with these memorials. A check of the minutes of the meeting of the Village Historical Commission shows no evidence that this was an act of the Village Historic Commission or of the Warren Historical Commission of which I was a member at that time. There was a very heated meeting of the Warren Historic Commission after the stealing in which Wesley Arnold and Eugene Sawyer were the only two people who objected to stealing of these memorials from our historical pioneer cemetery. The clique had packed the meeting with their friends and supporters and had misinformed the crowd that I was somehow profiting from placing these memorials, (absurd as I have no financial interest in the cemetery, do not sell memorials, or solicit for them, do not advertise to sell anything, and have actually given away my books for free for years.) that they said that I was solely responsible for placing them, and that it was an act of a vigilante. (Of course none of that is true.) And although I was the catalyst who inspired the placing of those memorials (because I had spent hundreds of hours out there and suggested to many visitors that it would be nice to have memorials) I can not take credit for them. Besides I don't have the income to waste thousands of dollars they probably cost, because I have bills to pay which is higher priority than placing stones in a forgotten cemetery, where only a very few people would see in a year, and because I am retired trying to live on social insecurity.) I was quite overwhelmed at the time because I had expected a rational meeting based on what justification, if any, was there for the removal of all of these beautiful expensive granite memorials done secretly without a public hearing. They even had a city attorney there unbeknownst to me at the time to write down my every word. Oz Zamora stated that he had removed the memorials. To me why the memorials were ripped out was the issue, not who stole them or who placed them. People have placed memorials in cemeteries for years and no one questions who placed them nor does it matter who placed or donated a memorial. They found nothing wrong with any of the memorials during this meeting, nor have they since. But why the grave robbers ripped them out is the more important matter. But this group twisted this to attack an old veteran for standing up against the grave robbers who took the veterans memorials. To me that is my brothers memorials the grave robbers ripped off. What did they expect. Us veterans at least have the courage to stand up and fight in defense of our brother soldiers. What did they do? Steal my fellow soldiers names and legacy out of our cemetery including our Unknown Soldier Memorial. What was objectionable about a nice polished memorial that said Unknown Soldier set on an unknown soldiers grave. Answer not a thing objectionable. And why would they steal the only memorial that listed our Warren soldier boys who died and are buried here? Why do veterans memorials offend these people? Well the loaded meeting turned out to be a get the old veteran the vigilante meeting which I had not expected, and was at that time at a loss on what to do except tell the truth and object to the removal of memorials honoring our veterans. I defended as best as I could. I did continue on the Historic Commission another year but was always outnumbered in any attempt to reverse their action. The secretary of the Historic Commission it should be noted was the wife of one of the grave robbers and was against my cause and my efforts were not recorded. Any motion I made about this had no second so became an unrecognized motion and therefore not voted upon or recorded. I made the mistake of giving up on it and in futility resigned from the Historic Commission. I found out later that I was just one of many who had been had become disenchanted with this clique. Being an academic and a college professor I did resolve to at least write what I know about this in a history book (here it is) and let history be the judge on this affair. I am after all a veteran and was on the Historic Commission at a time when this was done secretly without my knowledge or permission. We veterans feel that stealing or removing veteran's memorials which they did not own from a cemetery they do not own is wrong. That to me is like stealing my brothers grave stone and legacy off of his grave and I will fight this to the day I die and my book will fight it forever.

Since the families who donated some of these are probably from out of town all I can do is publicize this in my books and website. It is my hope that one of these families who donated these memorials will see this and sue them hopefully putting a stop to this stealing of memorials. As of 2019 now that public opinion is against the stealing of the memorials the officers of the Warren Historical Society are now trying to blame others. Now they are trying to say the Warren Village Commission did it. But those folks did know anything about it But even the minutes show that no vote was taken on this issue. But since the secretary of the group was the wife of one of the perpetrators the minutes could be easily doctored. This historian was an insider in the Historical Society until this happened. I saw how they were upset at memorials they could not take credit for. And they were livid at my name having been quoted on two stones. And they wanted to blame me for donating the stones. I actually can't take credit for these memorials. I did promote the idea of the need for these memorials to visitors of the cemetery.) It was obvious that they were irritated that anyone but them could put memorials in that cemetery and take credit for it which I did not do. They kept this from me which is why the stealing was done in secret because I was on the Historic Commission. (So were they) I have since quit volunteering for this group. I tried fighting this at the Commission meeting but was outnumbered and outvoted. I was the only one who defended these memorials. As a Veteran and former soldier it was and is my duty. I will close with one last veteran statement again and move on. We veterans who survived wars speak for the soldiers buried there. We veterans went through hell, were wounded, saw friends die, heard the pain filled screams of mortally wounded men, put friends body parts into body bags, accompanied friends caskets home. We served our country with honor and integrity. We feel it is wrong to steal soldiers memorials and especially ones which show soldiers honored service to future generations for whom they fought and died. They at least earned their name on a granite memorial and this grave robbing gang has no right to steal soldiers memorials they don't own out of our cemetery. Now visitors including young people will not be able to see who these soldiers were. Now many of our soldiers have no marker at all because the only one they had was stolen. We veterans want them replaced because we should honor our local boys who gave their lives for our freedom.
